Montevideo, 13th.
I have plenty of news items to send,
but the telegraph will not receive my dispatch after 10, and it is now past 9.30.
Having seen various comments in the Buenos Aires Press in regard to disbanding of forces of Gen. Muñoz, I interviewed the President on the subject.
He says that Muñoz has disbanded fifteen hundred men, whose services are required for agricultural work in the Department of Canelones. That it is not true that Muñoz has come to live in Montevideo and will take no further part in the war. Muñoz is military commander of the Department of Canelones, close to the capital, and his forces are not required, it needed they can easily be summoned by telephone and telegraph, of which there is a very complete service throughout the department. General Muñoz himself is at his camp at Santa Rosa with a few hundred men and his artillery. He is on the best of terms with all his fellow officers and with the Government which regards him as an officer who has done his duty well.
There is absolutely no news from the seat of war.
The rivers and brooks are still in floods, rendering movements of armies well nigh impossible, particularly for Government forces with artillery too heavy for horses of the country and which has to be dragged by oxen over the roadless country.
There are rumours that Lamas has succeeded in escaping from the trap in which the Government troops had him, and of sundry small parties of rebels in the woods, from Solis to the frontier; four hundred rebels are also reported to be near Nico Perez.
Time up, must stop.
Stand-by O'Gorman.

(Per Havas Agency.)
THE WAR.
No armistice yet arranged.
Hostilities apparently suspended.
Blockade of Crete continues.
Sanguilly again a Cuban insurgent.

Berlin 13th.—Telegrams from Metz announce that Emperor William visited the city this afternoon accompanied by many high civil dignitaries and military officers.
His Imperial Majesty carefully inspected
the barracks and several forts and expressed his satisfaction at the state in which they were found.
Paris, 13th.—Telegrams from Bourgogne report that frost has caused enormous damage in that department. The damage done to the vineyards in the department of Jonne is estimated at 20 millions of francs.
Canea, 13th.—Several Greek vessels arrived here today to take on board the Hellenic troops who are already on their way to Platania off the coast of which these vessels are lying.

Naples, 13th.—The remains of the Duc d'Aumale arrived here this morning from Palermo accompanied by deceased's family.
The corpse is expected in France tomorrow.

Constantinople, 14th.—Telegrams from Macedonia deny the reported rising in several districts against the Turkish authorities. The whole of that Turkish Province is perfectly quiet.

Athens, 13th.—Telegrams from Arta announce that a strong Greek column, commanded by Colonel Bairactaris, has left in the direction of Philippiades, and has, according to latest telegrams, again occupied Imaret, which the Turks had been compelled to evacuate.

Washington, 13th.—The Spanish Legation advises the Foreign Minister in Madrid that President McKinley has declared to an editor of the New York Herald that the United States will not do anything
with reference to Cuba which might cause
Spain any distrust.

Athens, 13th.—The Greek forces in the Epirus are advancing successfully, rolling back the Turkish Army Corps which occupied the South of that Province. The Greek squadron continues holding the mastery at sea, and Admiral Salopoules keeps a strict blockade in the Gulf of Salonica.

London, 13th.—War operations between Turkey and Greece have been suspended,
and an Armistice has been proclaimed, whilst the bases for peace are being discussed.

London, 13th.—The Bank of England has fixed its minimum rate of discount at 2 per cent.

Deptford, 13th.—Three hundred Argentine steers were sold today at 40 to 42
pence, also 1648 wethers at 48 to 52 pence per stone. There is a brisk demand for steers and wethers, and all the stock has been sold. There is not a single head of Argentine cattle in the market at present.

Rome, 13th.—The debate on the Army Reform Bill was continued today. A vote of confidence in the Government was carried by a majority of 109 votes. That the Bill will become law, there appears to be little doubt. The debate will be continued to-morrow.

London, 13th.—A meeting in favour of bimetallism was held here today, and was attended by several members of Parliament. The arrival of the North American Commission is expected to aid the cause.

Constantinople, 13th.—The Sultan has not yet acceded to the request of the Powers for an armistice to facilitate the negotiations for peace between Turkey and Greece.

It is known that in both official and military circles it is desired that Edhem Pasha should first obtain possession of Domokos.

Paris, 13th.—The news from Madagascar is favourable. The few remaining insurgents are gradually being subdued and the internal administration of the island progresses in a satisfactory manner.

THIS MORNING'S TELEGRAMS.
(Received after Midnight.)

London, 13th.—Money is exceptionally abundant. The discount rate for private paper with maturity was 1½ per annum,
has been reduced to 1½—figure unheard of for long in this market.

London, 13th.—Mr. Curzon stated tonight in the House that the blockade of Crete would not be abandoned until all tears had disappeared of disturbances on that island.

New York, 13th.—The afternoon papers state that Sanguilly has again landed in Cuba near San Juan, at the head of a revolutionary expedition furnished with metallises and a large quantity of military stores supplied by the revolutionary committee.

Barcelona 13th.—General Polavieja, ex-
Governor of the Philippines, arrived here
today and was accorded a brilliant reception by the clergy and civil and military authorities. A Te Deum was sung in the Cathedral. The populace, however, showed very little enthusiasm.

WAGES AND CURRENCY.

We are indebted to the Bureau of Statistics of the United States for a copy of its Bulletin on Money and Prices in Foreign countries, Vol. XIII, Part. II. This Bulletin is of special interest in the River Plate, as it contains a valuable chapter on wages, cost of living, and currency in the Argentine Republic, from the pen of the Hon. Wm. Buchanan, United States Minister near the Argentine Government.
The talented and indefatigable compiler has squeezed into fifteen pages a wonderful amount of information, not only of exceptional interest abroad, where our currency history may not be familiar, but also of absorbing local importance, in so far as the American Minister throws a lot of light on questions that have been hardly touched in our midst.

Thus, nothing could be more interesting than a close study of the relations of wages and prices to fluctuations in the currency; to our knowledge, nobody in the Plate has taken up this subject, and but for Minister Buchanan we should be groping in the dark; and we specially recommend to Minister Escalante the official report of the American Bureau. With regard to the cost of imported articles in this country, Minister Buchanan says that each change has been in the direction of lowering their cost, and with the exception of live animals, this is equally true regarding the exports from this country. It would have been interesting to know in this respect what part the fall in the world's price-level plays in these local changes, caused, as they are, directly by fluctuations in the currency and customs dues. This, however, may be considered to be outside the scope of Mr. Buchanan's investigations, which deal more especially with a history of money in the Argentine Republic, beginning "ab ovo" and with wages and currency fluctuations.

To give an idea of the industry of Minister Buchanan we cannot do better than quote what he writes on wages from 1896 to 1896:—

WAGES 1896 to 1896.

The following table shows the wages
received by different classes of workmen and workwomen during the years 1896, 1890, 1892, 1894, and at the present time.
It seems proper to say that in compiling this table many difficulties have been met with, the chief one being the absence of Argentine labor statistics beyond the public service. I was therefore compelled, as I have explained at the outset, to resort to first hands for the information I desired; and in carrying out this work I have met with the most kindly assistance
both from the employed and from employers, to all of whom I am greatly indebted.

stg., with the Government to guarantee the possession of means of livelihood. All the ecclesiastical properties were at the same time sequestered in return for salaries to be paid to the bishops and priests, and this arrangement was ratified by the Vatican. I visited the Church of San Antonio Abad in Las Palmas, which is the oldest on the island, and I knelt at the very altar where Columbus attended Mass in 1492, before setting out for America.

Las Palmas is rapidly becoming anglicized, it has several English hotels, English club, church and cemetery; also a cricket, lawn tennis and golf club. It is the seat of a Bishopric and its population now reaches 25,000. They run a steam tramway between the port and city, distance about three miles. I noticed new houses on the route between the port and town springing up on all sides, but they are always exposed to the dangers of the sands of the Sahara, which at times are blown over in such volume as to block up the tramway and stop traffic. Our stay is so short that I greatly fear I shall not have time to visit the Gran Caldera. The road up from the town to Tafrá passes through a beautiful grove of palms and extensive banana gardens, and the scenery is so different from what we are accustomed to in Buenos Aires, that everything has a certain charm of freshness that enthralls the soul and sharpens the appetite. Nearly all our first-class passengers followed my example and went up the mountain to Quiney's: knowing the difficulties about supplies, I got Captain Mascasini to telegraph to Quiney advising him of the crowd. I shall try to catch the Velocé mail from Barcelona, for my next letter but I have my doubts, as it is more likely we shall cross her near Gibraltar. They have three daily papers here, the Diario, Telegrafo and Patria, I called on all my colleagues and left my card, whilst waiting for the coach to drive up the mountain.

Yours,
Dr. Syntax.

SOUTHWARD, HO!

ALONG THE GREAT SOUTHERN LINE.

(By our German Correspondent).

Bismarck said—"Lift Germany into the saddle and she will learn how to ride." The same applies to Argentina, whose saddle is British capital. England has not only loaned the capital, but the men also, and to measure the extent of such services one must take the Great Southern Railway as an instance and travel the length of its rails. To perform this journey you require leisure—say sixty hours, jumping from one train into another.

You can measure the progress of this republic by the growth of this railway. You have already published the working results of this colossal line, and the admirable speech of its chairman, Mr. F. Parish: so I shall not recapitulate, but let me say it requires the ability of such a manager as Mr. Barrow, assisted by such excellent lieutenants as Messrs. Gould and Gregory, to keep this gigantic enterprise in its present good working order. I may well compare it to a great chronometer of British make: Perfect machinery and perfect time.

The permanent way is fenced in on both sides by seven wires, and there is as great guarantee of safety to life and limb as on European lines. As to comfort in the passenger cars and sleeping saloons, with a mellowed experience of railway travelling, I can safely say that I prefer the Great Southern line to any in Europe, and this is no empty compliment.

Along the well-balanced line, comfortably seated in the Restaurant Car, wondering at the travelling changes one witnesses in a life time in the Plate, from the "tropilla," bullock-cart, "diligencia," to the present comfortable Pullman, we sped along to Mar del Plata. I had not visited the place for years and found great improvements. This sea-bathing resort has now over one thousand brick houses, of which 100 are chalets, and a population of 8000 souls. The old mole has been lengthened by 150 metres for the convenience of ships from B. Ayres. The Great Southern Railway has made Mar del Plata, and it remains with the Government to increase its importance by stimulating the fishery industry and start a settlement of hardy mariners who would turn out sailors for Argentina's fleet. The fish in Mar del Plata is delicious, and the Hotel Bristol is comfortable; its big dining-saloon is a feature, with accommodation for 500 people, and beautifully decorated. The gambling saloon was in full swing day and night; even ladies looked on and gambled till the early morning. I must confess that I never saw an Argentine lady in the roulette room.

As the trip to Mar del Plata is done by night I had no chance of inspecting the zone through which the railway runs, one of the richest in the country. I was glad, therefore, in my journey from the Argentine Brighton to Tandil to get a good view of the landscape. As we sped past Las Arenas we came in full view of the Castillo Basualdo, probably the largest and finest country-house in the Republic. My companions in the car told me that the chateau has 70 rooms, and that the inside arrangements are simply gorgeous. The lands on this estate, I remarked, were excellent, which partially accounts for the fame of the wool parcel from this estancia.

Tandil! The old camp town revives the terrible murders committed by the Tata Dios in 1871. Who can forget the terrible impression that massacre produced in Buenos Aires? To-day Tandil is a splendid town, with all the creature comforts of Buenos Aires. Some of the hotels are equal to any in the capital. The connection of Tandil with the Danish settlement is well known. In 1850 the first Dane, Johann Fojel, settled here and started the Molino Viejo. Out of a population of 8000 in Tandil there are 1500 Danes, all doing well.

There are four mills in Tandil, one of which was taken over by Messrs. Bunge and Born at about one-third of its cost. Tandil tillage yields 15 fanegas of wheat per square. Land in this partido was sold the other day at $3 3/4 per hectare. The largest land owner is Mr. Santa Marina with four estancias covering an area of 114 leagues—not to mention 60 more leagues he owns further south.

Camps from Tandil to Tres Arroyos looked good, but south of the latter district are but "muddling." In a rainy season the latter lands may feed 5,000 sheep to the league, in dry not more than 2,000. From Juarez to Bahia Blanca you see the "tosca" projecting only too frequently.

Bahia Blanca was a revelation to me. On all sides you see the stamp of progress, in the wharf, the sheds, the numerous railway tracks, the hotels, the shops, the streets. Railway enterprise and British capital have made this place, and what a future it has in store with its net of railways running to the North to Buenos Aires, to the North-East to Tres Arroyos, Tandil, to the West to Neuquen, to the North-West to Toay, and thence in the natural order of things to Villa Mercedes and to Mendoza! On all sides you can hear English spoken—study the echo!

SPORT.

RACING IN THE PARK.

Favoured by splendid weather and a fair attendance yesterday's meeting passed off rather successfully for the Jockey Club. With exception of the opening event, fields turned out well enough, and some good finishes kept the public in humour. After Talma got home in the first race backers went right down Glicina, which paid the highest dividend this season so far viz $139.93 per ticket. In the classic, 20 candidates turned out of which Pepina was made favourite and did not disappoint her backers. The mile then gave us an exciting finish between Brick and Oriol. The former seemed to have the race all to himself until he was caught about 20 metres from the post by Oriol. In the long distance Giro got home a winner in spite of vigorous challenges from Yervá and Tanger. The Gentlemen Riders' race was an easy win for Mundana well ridden by Mr. Paas. With Pickpocket's win in the final a good day's sport was brought to a close.

The following are the details:—
Premio Brick.
For all horses of 3 years and over that have not won more than 2 races. Distance 1,200 metres. Prize $1,400 to the 1st and 100 to the 2nd.

When the flag fell, Orbe took the lead from Hermit, Talma being 3rd and Little Darling last. Running into the straight, the leader had shot his bolt, letting up Talma, who went on to win by a bare head from Little Darling after an exciting finish.

Sport—Talma $2.48.
Premio Pillito.
For all 2 years old. Prize $1,600 to the 1st and $150 to the second. Distance 1,400 metres.

THE RIVER PLATE TELEGRAPH COMPANY (Communicated).

The Diario continues firm in its attitude against the closing of the River Plate Telegraph Co's offices, and furnishes the public with the true inwardness of the case in an interesting article in its first issue yesterday which in view of the recent misstatements of La Prensa, has a double value, and clears the R.P.T. Co. of all responsibility. It reads as follows:—
We have already demonstrated in our first edition of 29th ult., that the complaint and arbitrary action against the Compañía Telegráfica del Río de la Plata was, we feared, lamentably misapprehended, that whereas the Western and Brazilian Telegraph Co. is accused, and the Compañía Telegráfica del Río de la Plata practically exonerated, by the C. and S.A. Co. New York, before the Bureau International Berne in 1895, the R.P.T. Co. is, on the other hand, extensively accused before the Argentine authorities by the C. and S.A. Co. B. Aires in 1896.

We have thus two procedures diametrically opposed to each other. In Europe the W. and B.T. Co. acknowledges its responsibility, makes its defence, and Berne recommends arbitration. In Argentina the R.P.T. Co. disclaims all participation in the matter, and their offices are summarily closed by the Argentine authorities.

The following are extracts from the defence of the W. and B.T. Co. before the Bureau International de B-rne with which we promised to furnish our readers.
"The Central and South American Telegraph Co. in their letter appear to have conveyed to the Berne Bureau the impression that the action of this Company had prevented that Company from equalizing rates by their route for messages between Europe and South America via New York and Valparaiso, thus discriminating against senders of messages. This however is not the case, and the following facts will place the Berne Bureau in possession of the facts."
After reviewing the history of the sur-charge to Chili and Peru by the Central and South American Co. against telegrams from Europe via Lisbon, and the same on telegrams from Europe to Brazil via Galveston the Western continues.

"In neither of these cases, however, did the operation render impossible the equalization of rates, because as a fact the same uniform tariffs have been actually charged to the public and consequently the rates 'equalized' the only difference it has made has been the company, or route concerned, has had to bear the 'extra paid out,' and therefore, the only result has been that it encashes a diminished net receipt; this, therefore, has not interfered with article XXVII, nor touched the senders of messages in any way."

This company has made no appeal to the Berne Bureau, because it has always understood that the cable lines under notice, as well as the North American cable lines, although observing the rules and regulations of the convention as far as they could were non-adherents greatly on account of these very lively competing lines and that, when attacked, each company must defend itself as it best could.

If the rules and regulations of the convention could all be applied to these non-adherent undertakings no doubt the protective clauses as to non-competition in rates and so on would be enforced as well as the other clauses.
This Company has amplified its observation in order to afford the Berne Bureau information upon the very dissimilar position of companies, lines and state lines, the former open to attack upon all points by new lines bound to nothing, restrained by almost no consideration and created by almost no competition and the latter competition deprecated under clause XXVII of the convention rules and regulations.

We think these facts will suffice to show you that the effect of the Central Coy to procure the Berne Bureau to increase its net receipts against the very course which itself originally introduced deserves no sympathy."

This document is of a great importance in this question because it shows clearly that the W. and B. Co. not only admits that the special tariff, complained of, is collected exclusively by it, but also that it has plausible reasons in defence of its position, at least the company makes it effect the senders of messages in Europe etc., to Brazil. Much less does it affect "el interés público de la Argentina." These dispositions are simply safeguards between two competing lines between North American and English shareholders, the English are disposed (not forced) to accept arbitration, the Americans do not care for this way of settling differences, but carrying the case to the Argentine authorities recommended the employment of force against one of the intermediate and independent Companies.

It is to be wondered at, that this could be carried into effect in the light of the XIX Century, and that forced vigilance continues to be exercised by Government officials at the office of the River Plate Telegraph Co. precluded even the testing of the cables of the Company to Montevideo.
It is to be wondered at, that this could be carried into effect in the light of the XIX Century, and that forced vigilance continues to be exercised by Government officials at the office of the River Plate Telegraph Co. precluded even the testing of the cables of the Company to Montevideo.

RAILWAY AND OTHER ITEMS.

Mr. Taylor of the Southern Railway has been appointed District Traffic Superintendent in this city of the Central Argentine Railway.

The Minister of the Interior has advised the War office that the manager of the Central North Railway has informed him that the Indians have made a raid up to within one kilometre of the Monteverde Station, and that he begs that steps be taken to guarantee the lives of the employees of the railway there.

The Minister of the Interior issued a decree yesterday rejecting the petition of the Railway Companies concerned, praying for a revocation of the decree ordering the raising of the rails between the Retiro and Casa Amarilla stations.

Government has approved the contract made by the manager of the Andine Railway with Mr. Peter Liberini to supply 14,000 sleepers at the unit price of $2.90. The tender of Mr. E. Capdevila for the same number of sleepers placed at San Pedro at $2.30 has been likewise accepted. The Railway Board has been authorized to spend $42,770 on the railway freight to Rio Cuarto of said sleepers.

LA PLATA.

(From our own Correspondent).

May 13th.
The Senate "no-queued" to-day, only 17 honourable members turning up; and this minority resolved not to turn up again till next Thursday. A whole week!

The employés of the Municipality here have not been paid their salaries for the past four months. Most of them are family men, and it is terribly hard on them.

Dr. S. Oliva has been named Superintendent of the Deaf and Dumb Institute.

A reduction in freight to market has been granted to the settlers in the Centros Agrícolas Amalia, Goumet, El Septimo, Aitos, Pasco, Pehuajo, and San Rafael.

Oh! Ex-Commissary Abdon Daus, who was dismissed for election frauds at Paan and Adolfo Alsina, has been appointed "Relator" of the "Tribunal de Cuentas" at $350 a month!!

There is great complaint amongst Government creditors for small sums about the difficulties and delays in getting paid.

The Treasury will begin to pay the pensioners of the province on Saturday.

THEATRES AND AMUSEMENTS.

Maestro Mascheroni was right when he remarked last night in his private room, to a few friends of the press—"It is so much of a good thing to oblige me to bring out three big operas within a week's time after my arrival in the city." Last night's performance of "Aida" was good, but showed haste in preparation. Mascheroni's acting was good, but he seemed to be still a little nervous, and put too much enthusiasm into his singing. He has however, improved all round. Scotti was his best, and we have seldom seen a better king. Signora Bonapata was admirable, and the same may be said of Signora Guasini and the rest of the company; we must congratulate Maestro Mascheroni on having again been called by the public before the curtain after the third act.

St. Alfredo Napoleon, the eminent pianist, gave a grand concert last Monday next, the 17th inst. in Prince George's Hall. The programme is exceptionally good and consists of selections from the works of Mendelssohn, Chopin, Beethoven, Liszt, Brahms and Napoleon. On this occasion St. Napoleon will be assisted by St. Graciana Duport and Professors Catelan, Gorin, Sr. Carlini, G. Marchal and Gerce Marchal. Such a galaxy of talent, every one of the taking part being of the first rank, should cause the hall to be crowded to overflowing.

Noche de Moda at the skating rink, when, as usual, there will be a special programme provided for the amusement of those attending. Although the skating season has commenced, it should not be forgotten that the rink is still open in the morning, when well known professors attend for the purpose of giving lessons in bicycle riding.

The exceptionally good company at the Zarzuela is attracting very large audiences. The performances are in pure Castilian, and in the repertoire of the company is comprised the works of the best known Spanish authors. Last night Calderon's great work "La Vida es Sueño," was listened to by a large and most critical audience. Sr. Leopoldo Buron, who has in previous years secured a great hold upon the theatre-going public, was cheered to the echo for his splendid rendering of the character of Segismundo, son of King Basilio of Poland. Many a time was he interrupted in the course of the piece by the applause that greeted his splendid acting, and at the end of each act was called for again and again. He was well supported by Sra. Mestres as Rosaura and Sr. Soler as Clarin.

To-night "Noche de Moda," they give "Militeares Paisanos."

EDITOR'S TABLE.

"Laus Deo!" The short, sharp and decisive war between Greek and Moslem may be considered at an end, or, nearly an end. It is said has been agreed to, and peace will, doubtless, be patched up. However, some telegrams assert that the victorious Edhem Pasha is still advancing to attack the Greeks at Domokos, where, as Prince Constantine says, they hold almost impregnable positions, so it would look as if the armistice is still in embryo. In Paris they think that the Sultan's terms for peace will be very hard. Aye, there's the rub!

Another kissing day! The R.M.S. Danube sails, and her passengers will get to Europe in the nick of time for the greatest spectacle the world has ever seen, the Queen's Diamond Jubilee.

The River Plate Telegraph Company's counsel yesterday laid its case with the Government, for closing its offices, before the Supreme Federal Court, the only absent member of which was Dr. Varela. There was a fair attendance of the public. The general impression in legal circles is that the decision of the Court, which will be delivered next week, must, inevitably, be in favour of the Company.

Ladies and gentlemen who have received written invitations to assist in the production of the opera "H.M.S. Pinafore" are requested to attend the second rehearsal this evening at 8.30, in the Salon Beranger, Tacuarí 253, taking the music with them if they have it. The Committee again appeal to all persons not taking part, but who may possess copies of the vocal or pianoforte score, to send same at once to 513 Piedad, room 27.

The Saint Andrew's Debating Society will hold its second "Guild" meeting to-night at 8.30 p.m. in the hall behind the Church, Peru 352, when the subject for discussion will be the heart-burning one of the "Sunday Question." Judging from the interest it has awakened in church circles, a good turn-out of members and friends is expected.

The holders of the following numbers in yesterday's Lottery all declared emphatically that they would not change places with King George of Greece, if he were to offer them the chance of doing so:—12767, $50,000; 11804, $10,000; 21939, $5,000; 4283, 12042, 4382, 13131, $2,000; 16791, 17768, 5594, 17944, 17835, 17091, 14425, 5865, 18259, $1,000; 2227, 12879, 19102, 3414, 9347, 21506, 22190, 19511, 14677, 16879, 17857, 19013, 2667, 10724, 11347, 4133, 22524, 7900, 15945, 18455, 20857, $500; 8117, 5361, 7194, 11785, 15760, 15158, 17307, 18192, 17642, 22237, 1560, 6094, 11412, 16824, 1889, 3217, 4640, 12971, 4645, 11936, 8801, 12000, 16564, 13863, 15770, 6155, 18853, 1732, 6064, 3279, 15755, 19093, 5657, $200.

Our readers will be grieved to hear that the patriarch of the Scotch Community, Don Roberto McClymont, died yesterday at his residence Calle Santa Fé No. 1815.

We think he was the doyen of the British community, for he was 96 years of age. Another land-mark gone, with memories of the youth of this country since the thirties, and in whose career we can trace the history of Scotchmen in the Plate. The funeral takes place to-day at 3 p.m. from Calle Santa Fé 1815, and carriages will be in waiting at Mr. Deck's at 2.30 p.m. at Calle Lavalle No. 547. The death of Mr. McClymont plunges leading families of the community into mourning, and we tender to them our sincere condolence in their bereavement.

We are requested to call attention to the fact that in the absence of the Vice in the Southern camps and at Bahia Blanca, the services at Holy Trinity, Lomas, will be conducted on the 16th inst. by Mr. F. H. C. Boutell.

There was nothing very new yesterday about the B. O. revolution, except a rumour that Lamas had sent a flag of truce to General Vasquez, to propose peace. Neither White nor Red believes a word of it.

There will be a tremendous influx of high and pious feminine life from learned Cordoba to-morrow, as nearly all the ladies there are coming down, headed by Bishop Toro, to start on Sunday morning on a pilgrimage to the Shrine at Lujan. It will be one of the largest attended gatherings ever seen at that holy place.

Hullo! What's this? A quarrel between the illustrious translator of Horace and Dante and our pious brother of the pen, Mr. Paul Groussac. There is no feud like a literary feud, and we tremble for the friendship that should exist between General Mitre and the learned editor of the "Biblioteca." The quarrel appears to have originated in a difference of views respecting the career of Santiago Liniers, a subject that Mr. Groussac has been handling with the skill of an acute critic in the pages of the "Biblioteca." The aged translator of Dante, allowing his feelings to overcome his discretion, appears to have denied the right of a foreigner like Mr. Groussac to deal with things Argentine. However, for our part, we must say that if there is any one competent to deal with Argentine history and literature, it is M. Groussac. We shall watch with painful interest the development of the quarrel between the two literary champions.

"Why the Charles Dickens does not the President of the Republic name a new War Minister. How long does he require to make up his mind?" This was the question in military and naval circles yesterday. General Victoria had the best of the betting in the clubs and political coteries last night.

Ye gods! The National Senators no-queued again yesterday.

During their short stay in this city, before leaving for Europe into the Mark yesterday, the German officers who have left the Chilean army visited all the barracks in town, and were very favourably impressed with the ready-looking, anything and tough appearance of the troops of the Line. These officers are Majors Baron von Wrangel, von Wulff, and Roth and Captains Schneveight and Gütlich.

Professor—"I called, madam, to give your daughter lessons on voice culture." Madam—"But I didn't engage you." Professor—"I know; but the neighbors did."

The Dia of Montevideo, which Borda summarily closed up the other day, has got out of the scrape by starting again under another name, that, no doubt, smells quite as sweet to its readers, El Dia Noticias.

Curious National Custom—"I was so mad," said the vivacious young American lady, "that I could have eaten a pound of nails." The listening Englishman made, a note in his commonplace book that evening: "Anger is so well recognized as a nervous complaint in this country that the natives are in the habit of taking iron to counteract it."—(Chicinnati Enquirer.)

It appears that it was the second-in-command of the Garibaldi, the gallant Captain Lequi, who discovered the injury to her bottom, during Captain Barilari's absence in this city. The former second commander, Captain Aguerriberri, confirms the statement that the ship grazed a bank of hard sand at Punta Asuncion, 80 miles from Bahia Blanca, but he considered the accident of no importance. The commission which went expressly to Bahia Blanca to report on the vessels, handed in their report last night. In this document it is stated that there is no doubt a slight deformity in the curve of the hull; but that there is absolutely nothing wrong with the vessel; that the cement at the bottom is untouched; that the engines work to perfection and in short that the Garibaldi is in perfect condition to perform any naval manoeuvre. Captain Domecq Garcia has been recalled, from France by telegraph and will be tried by court-martial.

Our worthy Lord Mayor is making a Homeric effort to put some life into the Fiestas Patrias on the 25th, and there will be several innovations in the programme: Gilt masts with flags and trophies in May Avenue; 46 electric lights with 20 trophies on Belgrano's statue; 52,000 small lights of all the colours of the rainbow; the Guildhall in May Avenue lighted and be-dragged from roof to cellar, and finally a grand procession of 600 torches, accompanied by all the military and police bands in the city. A tip-top programme. But what about the poor?

A cultivated English enthusiast who had "settled" in the Whitechapel district of London to do good to the people by precept and example, said recently that the denizens of the region were to have a kindly feeling for him, but that at obviously it sprang chiefly from pity. "They looked upon me," he said, "as an idiot." So he is.

In reference to the lamented death of Mrs. Moor, of the Central Uruguay Railway reported by telegram by O'Gorman on Wednesday, the Montevideo Times says:—"We regret to record the death, which occurred on Monday afternoon with painful suddenness, of Mrs. Isabel Iscarre Moor, wife of Mr. Roland Moor, Chief of the Central Uruguay Railway Deposits at Peharol. The deceased lady was much esteemed in English and native circles in her district, and very general sympathy is felt with her husband in his bereavement. The funeral took place in the British Cemetery yesterday afternoon, the Rev. S.F. Handcock officiating, and was largely attended by members of the Central Uruguay staff and by English residents."

Who's Who? It's often very difficult to say, at this democratic end of the century, when one man is as good as another, and a great deal better; but there can be no mistake about that distinguished Pigtail, Chang-Yun-Hoo, who has arrived at New York, on his way across the North Atlantic, to represent the first cousin (some millions of miles removed) of the Sun, Moon and Stars at the Queen's Diamond Jubilee.

The magnificent stained glass window in memory of the late Thomas Drysdale which has been placed in the Nave of the Scotch Church is now concluded, and will be on view on Sunday forenoon. Special reference will be made to it at the Morning Service. This is the finest stained glass window in the city, and is a great improvement to the church.

Owing to the wet evening the Prizes at the Scotch Church Sunday School could not be presented last Saturday. The ceremony will take place on Sunday after the forenoon service, and it is hoped that many parents and friends will be able to attend.

We regret to learn from Montevideo that Mr. F. Brood, the manager of the Union Tramway Line, is attacked with typhoid fever, and has been in the British Hospital there since Saturday last. We wish him a speedy recovery.

Ho! Ho! Oom Paul, old buffer, so you have become cheeky! So much the worse for you. The uncouth President of the Transvaal Republic has been unwise enough to answer in "energetic" terms the note from Birmingham's Joseph to the effect that Great Britain means to insist on the very strictest compliance with the Convention of London that establishes a British Protectorate over his republic. When Colonel Trueman gets all his horses and mules shipped to the Cape, Paul's chastisement will begin.

So Ivette Guilbert, the famous French music-hall singer, has bestowed herself in matrimony. Strange to say, the happy man is neither a Prince, nor an English lord, nor Italian Marquis, nor German Baron, but a simple Dr. Max Schiller. Although the STANDARD did not make the match, as it did the Duke of York's, it wishes the happy couple a life-long honeymoon.

General Roca, with a large number of friends, visited on Wednesday the careening docks at the North end of the Madero Port; and the contractors' engineers showed the distinguished party round in an open car. The General was very much impressed with the magnitude and solidity of the works, and warmly complimented the contractors.

Experiments with Koch's tuberculina, a small quantity of which was recently sent out by Mr. C. Sommer, Argentine Consul in Hamburg, are now being made in the Casa de Asilamiento, and the Health Board has asked the Lord Mayor to send for more, to use it in the public hospitals.

The Military and Naval Clubs here have sent a fraternal wire to the Military Club in Rio, in reply to its friendly telegram in connection with the interminable powder there in honour of Admiral Goni's squadron, the visit of which has drawn forth such effusive demonstrations of "fino amor" from the three chief nations of South America.

The Army Staff is now busy about the grounds to be selected for artillery practice during the drilling of the National Guards. Mr. Demarchi has patriotically offered his land at South Barracas, and Mr. Silveira his, at Flores, for the purpose.

Gold Premium

First Ring..... 201.30

Second Ring..... 201.70

There is practically nothing to say about the gold market, as things are just as they were, nothing changed, and no signs of any change imminent. It is strange that this should be so with the fortnightly liquidation within immediate hail, especially as business for the 15th has always been fairly brisk, but as a matter of fact things could not be slower, so it must be supposed that in the fluctuations the differences were wiped out. Speculation there is none. It is a set formula on 'Change now, when a broker becomes himself as to his reading of the market and the shaping of the ends, to start with: "I may state I have not a cent bought—or sold," as the case may be, and though it generally provokes a malicious contortion of the risible muscles, it is as likely true as not, certainly veracious as to the interest of the speaker being almost, if not quite, purely platonic. The old leaven does not work out easily, and we suppose there are few in the ring that have not got their 5,000 or 10,000 on the hazard of the moment; though perhaps more to keep the hand in and the eye clear than for anything else. Impressions and convictions are by no means profound. On the whole, the market is bullish, but as there is no steady bearing upwards, no push, no current, no spin, there is quite as much readiness to operate on the fall as on the rise, and very little disposition to operate at all. At the first hour to-day prices kept very steady, but as the total of sales was enormously below the average, the market was melancholy-slow. Stocks too are not faring well, the bottom seeming to have dropped completely out of Catalinas, whilst even such good stocks as Old Gas and Argentine Gas were down and despondent. Strange to say, National Cédulas keep up, the F's being done at 87.50.

The following is a summary of the business effected at the first ring to-day:—

Mr. H. C. Thompson, the furniture king and Lord High Chancellor, took leave to-day, though it is only for a short trip to San Juan and Montevideo.

A gentleman arrived to-day from Entre Rios, reports the first flight of locusts of the season already showing there. And he does not think that the early frost of winter will send them back either, as they take quarters in the famous Montes de Montiel till the atmospheric conditions are quite to their liking. This, of course, is mere supposition, but at all events the news is not auspicious.

One of the oldest—not inhabitants—brokers on 'Change was in great humour to-day over the recovery of his pocketbook which had been very neatly and adroitly abstracted from his pocket in the tramway a few nights ago. The business was so very cleverly carried out that he did not miss it till the next morning. It contained 75 dollars in cash, some valuable documents, and a few stamps. Whether from remorse of conscience or innate gentlemanly feeling on the part of Mr. Cacus, the fact is that to-day he received his pocket-book back through the Post Office without any trouble or expense and intact. The stamps were there just as he had placed them also the documents and only the $75 missing, an oversight undoubtedly on the part of the penitent thief that he is perhaps still regretting, even if it is been intentional, the return of the pocket-book is proof conclusive of the high grade of thoughtfulness and refinement now prevalent in the "profession". Perhaps it has become a by-law of their code of etiquette.

We can report the exchange market decidedly improved, due doubtless to the shipments of specie having relieved the pressure appreciably, and again there is the hope expressed in some quarters that shipments are at an end. Such hopes are certain to prove fallacious, because the reasons that dictated the shipments are still in full force, that is to say, dearth of produce, and consequently lack of bills to tide the winter over. It would be a very pleasurable experience to find the menace of further shipments not taking shape, but it would be hazardous in the extreme to base calculations on such a possibility. In the morning the market was very dull and little was done, but in the afternoon business woke up considerably, and rates improved. We can quote—
London—47 9/16d.
Paris—4.98 fcs.
Antwerp—4.99 fcs.
Hamburg—4.06 marks.

With regard to discounts it is hinted that the banks are keeping a very tight hand even with their customers, which is very wise of the truth. It is not to be supposed that the banks would be so shortsighted, with business so stagnant, and commerce in a critical position, as to pull short up and refuse their clients. It would not only be shortsighted and impolitic, it would be positively dangerous, and if there is one man more than another able to steer clear of the danger shoals it is the bank manager. At the same time it is in a position to state that the report is devoid of all foundation. The managers have to take their precautions like the importing merchant, the wholesale trader and the retail men, but these precautions do not mean a wholesale restriction of credit. The banks are giving their clients all the latter require.

Mr. John Augier was welcomed back to-day from outside, where he had a run-over the South of Santa Fé and Córdoba line, of which he is a director in London, then going on to Mendoza, the progress of which province left him astounded. He found it bitterly cold there, and says that in England he never experienced such a solid cold as on Sunday last in Mendoza. Mr. Augier brings back the most favorable impressions.

We had the pleasure of a visit to-day from Mr. Richard Tiplady, superintendent of the Bahia and San Francisco Railway. He must be the doyen of railway men in South America, as he has been located in Brazil for 30 years, and has seen moving vicissitudes of men and fortunes in that long spell. He reports Brazil now terribly knocked about, and exchange at the lowest point it has ever touched. The fanatical flare-up at Canudos he does not consider of much importance, though the rebels have received supplies and ammunition which will help them considerably in maintaining the strong positions they occupy, and is a strange thing that until the Government troops moved on Canudos this place was unknown, not being marked on either plan or map. It is of course a very primitive town as regards architecture, but Mr. Tiplady estimates that it must comprise at least 2,000 houses. The sugar production seems to be on the decline, as on the Bahia and San Francisco line the carriage since the Emancipation law has dwindled to an insignificant amount. Coffee is on the increase, but prices are not favorable, and cotton-planting has almost been abandoned. Mr. Tiplady only pays the Plate a hurried visit for the benefit of his health. He arrived in the Danubio and leaves again to-morrow in the same packet, but purposes paying a longer visit next year.

At the meeting of creditors of Messrs. Guthmann and Brothers, held yesterday in the office of Judge Dr. Amunátegui, Mr. G. Arning, the syndic, presented his report, in which he says that the assets are mostly bills receivable which amount to $14,777 gold and $4,544% and the liabilities $6,789 gold and $72,668%.

The Union Azucarera has exported up to the present 7,300 tons of sugar to the United States and has engaged with nine factories to export during this month 15,000 tons more to the same destination. Continuing the excerpts from our London contemporaries over the resumption bill we give the following from the Financial Times, a very unnecessarily severe reflection on the aim of the measure, pre-empting as same time that the Finance Minister has not confessed the 22 millions allotted to, nor ever had any intention of, so doing—

"In our recent comment on the action of the Argentine Government in proposing to resume full remittances on the External Debt, stipulated under the Rothschild-Romero agreement, we ventured to express scepticism as to the genuine character of the Government's desire to allow foreign bondholders to participate in improved conditions, unless there were some selfish object to be gained. From a cutting sent us we find that the writer in the Sunday Times, who describes himself as 'A Cornhill Magpie,' is quite gripped at our attitude and not only the garrulous bird himself, but certain anonymous magnates. Our suggestion, says our critic, is to put it mildly, ungenerous and short-sighted, and I happen to know that the expression of this ill-natured cynical view has caused considerable pain in some high and influential quarters." If those high and influential quarters are Argentine, we frankly confess that we are delighted to hear that they are suffering from mental disturbance, for the Republic came very placidly through the crisis of its foreign creditors caused by its scandalous over-borrowing. Our critics who utterly forget the past history of Argentina, actually cite her conduct as an example of the Greek, who hypothesized certain resources to the Monopoly bondholders and then calmly diverted them to her own uses. In reply we would refer our readers to a letter from Messrs. Louis Cohen and Sons, which appears in another column, wherein it is stated that the Argentine Minister of Finance has issued an order confiscating a sum of about 24 million dollars, being the surplus of the National Bank, in liquidation—a sum which they allege to belong to the holders of the bonds of the City of Buenos Aires Loan of 1884-88. Messrs. Louis Cohen and Sons point out that in order to resume the payment of full interest of the External Debt of the nation "the Government does not hesitate to appropriate funds which in reality belong to the unsatisfied creditors of the National Bank, in liquidation." Messrs. Louis Cohen and Sons are evidently not one of the high and influential quarters which is suffering considerable pain on account of our remarks."

Locusts have made their obnoxious appearance in Concordia already. An enormous swarm settled on the Chajar camps last Friday! The Committee appointed to distribute seed amongst the colonists in Entre Ríos is fulfilling its task to the entire satisfaction of all concerned. Ninety-two thousand seven hundred kilos of wheat seed and 50,000 of linseed were asked for by the colonists in Concordia, and the number of kilos asked for by colonists in the department of Federación was 17,350 wheat and 28,770 linseed; all this seed has been distributed.

Colonists in Colonia Alvear will soon receive their portion.

Messrs. P. and G. Hughes have imported from England by the s.s. Bellona and Seymour four pure bred Durham bulls and four Durham heifers. These animals have all first rate pedigrees and will be sold to-day by Messrs. P. and G. Hughes and Co., at 2 p.m. sharp in their auction mart San Martín 153.

Charcoal making, one of the principal industries in Entre Ríos, is being crushed by monstrous freights charged by the railways in that Province.

In our last issue we gave some amazing figures from the New York Mutual; those shown in the balance sheet of the New York Equitable are almost more wonderful still, as will be seen, especially bearing in mind that the Company is only in its 58th year. The figures need no comment. They are made up to Dec. 31st of 1896:

$ gold
Total assets on 31st Dec. '96, 216,773,947
" receipts, 45,011,058
" payments, 30,004,422
Policies in force, 915,102,070
New policies made in 1896, 127,694,084
Applications for policies made and not accepted, 21,678,467

Discussion was very brisk to-day about what some people call with reason the fiasco of the sale of the Government port lands and the Castells lands auctioned off yesterday. It is a significant sign of shockingly tight times to see these lands neglected at 50 dollars the metre, as it must be borne in mind that they will not be offered again at a lower upset price, as would probably happen if they were private property and a realization necessary. Consequently, if people are holding back in this expectation, they will suffer disappointment. For those who have the capital available there could be no better investment, as the sites, in the gradual lapse of time, must grow enormously valuable, appreciating in a corresponding or even greater ratio with the growth of the country, the immense production of which has to pass over the lands, and its enormous imports to be dumped thereon till they have been sited, sold and carted away. This is not the probable, but the certain outcome. Who can think then the price of $50 the metre dear even to-day? Nobody who believes in the country surely, Mr. Agustín Silveira sells on Sunday next the Manzana N. III. The buyers will put out their money at usury.

Business in gold at the second hour was not a whit brisker than in the morning, there being little doing for cash or end of month, and nothing for further on dates. Stocks too were down in the month, and the general impression in the ring is that we are in for a terribly slow, hard-pulled-up stream time. The rate opened for to-morrow at 801.50 and closed at 801.70, with a minimum of oscillation, whilst after the hour the price slid down again to 801.50, sellers, Catalinas are flat at 6%, and Cedulas quiet, though there seems to be steady inquiry for National descriptions. Some Santa Fe Consols were done at 40, and New Italian Banks at 79, both showing a slight advance.

The following is a summary of the business effected in stocks and shares at the second ring:— $ 126,200 May 14th at 801.50-40-80-801.70-80.70.
